

BECOME A PROFESSIONAL OR STUDENT MEMBER OF THE CANADIAN ASSOCIATION OF PSYCHOSOCIAL ONCOLOGY

The Canadian Association of Psychosocial Oncology (CAPO) is an organization of professionals, clinicians, researchers, educators, and others dedicated to the understanding, treatment and study of the social, psychological, emotional, spiritual and quality-of-life aspects of cancer.

CAPO leads nationally and globally in promoting capacity for, and excellence in psychosocial oncology services to enhance the wellness of individuals and families.

BENEFITS:

- Foster your interest in this important clinical area of oncology and patient and family care
- Expand your knowledge and experience in the fast-changing world of cancer care
- Obtain access to best-practice guidelines and most recent information for patient and family care
- Receive new or updated information on advances related to cancer care and psychosocial oncology
- Develop links and networks with other students and professionals
- Facilitate collaborative research
- Receive e-mail news related to CAPO activities and related events (conferences, workshops)
- Support CAPO's initiative in providing the best care to all cancer patients and their family members
- Discounted rates for CAPO conferences and courses (including IPODE)
- Free subscription to the Canadian interdisciplinary journal, Oncology Exchange.

CAPO has a long tradition of bringing together various disciplines - psychologists, social workers, nurses, physicians, and rehabilitation professionals - who share a common interest in psychosocial oncology and those with cancer, family members, and loved ones.
